

DOLENT

Meaning: Dolent: expressing or conveying sorrow or mourning; mournful.

1. The dolent melody of the violin echoed through the empty hall, stirring feelings of nostalgia.
2. Her dolent expression revealed the depth of her sorrow after receiving the disappointing news.
3. In the midst of the celebration, he felt a dolent heaviness in his heart, remembering those he had lost.
4. The dolent tales shared by the old man captivated the children, drawing them into a world of sadness and longing.
5. As the rain fell softly outside, the dolent atmosphere wrapped around them like a heavy blanket of grief.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dolent>