

DOLT

Meaning: Dolt: a stupid or foolish person.

1. The old man called his neighbor a dolt for forgetting to bring back the tools he had borrowed.
2. Despite his impressive resume, his constant mistakes at work made everyone regard him as a dolt.
3. She felt like a dolt for not realizing the answer was right in front of her all along.
4. Even the teacher struggled to remain patient with the dolt who kept asking the same question.
5. In the debate, his opponent's arguments were so weak that they made him look like a complete dolt.
6. He acted like a complete dolt during the meeting, ignoring everyone's input.
7. Despite his intelligence, he sometimes comes off as a dolt when he makes careless mistakes.
8. The comedian's routine poked fun at a dolt who constantly misunderstood simple instructions.
9. She couldn't believe her friend was being such a dolt for not studying before the big exam.
10. In the heated debate, one candidate was labeled a dolt for his lack of factual knowledge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dolt>