

DOMESTICATION

Meaning: Domestication is the process by which wild plants and animals are cultivated and bred for human use, leading to their adaptation to human environments.

1. The domestication of plants and animals has profoundly shaped human civilization.
2. Scientists study the process of domestication to understand how species adapt to human environments.
3. Domestication often leads to significant changes in the behavior and genetics of animals.
4. The domestication of dogs is believed to have occurred thousands of years ago, marking a pivotal moment in human history.
5. Cultural practices surrounding domestication can vary widely between different societies and ecosystems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/domestication>