

DOMICAL

Meaning: Domical (adjective): relating to or resembling a dome, typically used to describe a structure or architectural feature that has a rounded, vaulted shape.

1. The architect designed a stunning domical structure that captivated visitors with its elegance.
2. In ancient Rome, many temples featured domical roofs that symbolized the heavens above.
3. The domical shape of the planetarium allowed for an immersive stargazing experience.
4. With its smooth curves and domical form, the building stood out in the city skyline.
5. The domical vaults of the cathedral created a dramatic effect in the interior space.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/domical>