

DOMICILIATION

Meaning: Domiciliation is the act of establishing a legal residence or address for a business or individual, often for purposes related to taxation and legal recognition.

1. The process of domiciliating a business can significantly affect its tax obligations.
2. Domiciliation is essential for establishing a legal address in a foreign country.
3. In many jurisdictions, the domiciliating of a company requires a local representative.
4. The law firm specializes in the domiciliations of international corporations.
5. Understanding the implications of domiciliating a property can help avoid legal complications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/domiciliation>