

DOMINATIVE

Meaning: Dominative: exhibiting a tendency to assert control or influence over others, often to the detriment of their opinions or feelings.

1. Her dominative personality often overshadowed the opinions of her peers in group discussions.
2. The dominative nature of the leader instilled a sense of fear among the team members.
3. In their relationship, he adopted a dominative role that stifled her independence.
4. The dominative influences in the culture shaped the social norms and expectations.
5. She found it challenging to assert herself in the face of his dominative attitude.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dominative>