

DOMINEER

Meaning: To domineer means to assert one's will over others in an arrogant or overbearing manner, often stifling their contributions or opinions.

1. She tends to domineer in conversations, making it difficult for others to share their thoughts.
2. His desire to dominate every situation often alienates his friends and colleagues.
3. The manager's domineering style created a tense atmosphere in the office.
4. Children need guidance, but not a parent who tries to domineer their every decision.
5. In her relationships, she learned the hard way that to love is not to domineer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/domineer>