

DONATIVE

Meaning: Donative: a gift or donation, especially one given for charitable purposes.

1. The philanthropist's donative significantly improved the local community center.
2. Many organizations rely on donative contributions to support their charitable missions.
3. The artist was grateful for the donative that allowed her to fund her next exhibition.
4. In legal terms, a donative is often considered a gift without any expectation of return.
5. The foundation received a generous donative that will help fund research for rare diseases.
6. The foundation provided a generous donative to support local arts programs.
7. In her will, she included a donative to her favorite charity, ensuring her legacy would live on.
8. The donative from the philanthropist allowed the school to upgrade its facilities significantly.
9. He was grateful for the donative he received, which helped him start his small business.
10. Many nonprofits rely heavily on donative contributions to sustain their operations and outreach.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/donative>