

DONNAT

Meaning: 'DONNAT' (verb): to adorn or embellish something with color or detail.

1. The artist donnat her canvas with vibrant colors, bringing the scene to life.
2. As the sun set, the sky donnat shades of pink and orange, captivating everyone who looked up.
3. In a surprising turn of events, he donnat his own fears and stepped onto the stage.
4. The ancient manuscript was adorned with illustrations that donnat the stories of old.
5. With each note, the musician donnat a sense of longing that resonated with the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/donnat>