

DOORYARD

Meaning: Dooryard: an area of land adjacent to a house, often used for outdoor activities or gardening.

1. The children played in the dooryard, chasing each other around the flower beds.
2. She hung the freshly laundered clothes on the line in the dooryard to dry in the sun.
3. Every morning, he would sit on the porch and enjoy his coffee while watching the dooryard come to life.
4. The dooryard was filled with the sweet scent of blooming lilacs in the spring.
5. They gathered in the dooryard for a barbecue, sharing stories and laughter late into the evening.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dooryard>