

DORMITIVE

Meaning: DORMITIVE: having the ability to induce sleep or promote sleepiness.

1. The scientist conducted experiments to explore the dormitive properties of various substances.
2. Despite its dormitive qualities, the herbal tea also provided a sense of calm and relaxation.
3. In literature, the term 'dormitive' often relates to the effects of sleep-inducing medicines.
4. The patient's reaction to the medication suggested that it had a strong dormitive effect.
5. Many ancient remedies were thought to contain dormitive ingredients that aided in sleep.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dormitive>