

DOSS

Meaning: DOSS (verb): To stay temporarily or to relax idly, often in a casual or informal manner.

1. He decided to doss at his friend's place for a few days while he looked for a new apartment.
2. After a long week of work, she preferred to doss around at home rather than go out.
3. They planned to doss in the park, enjoying the sunny weather and each other's company.
4. Rather than studying, he chose to doss and play video games all weekend.
5. The backpackers often doss in hostel common rooms to save money while traveling.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doss>