

DOSSER

Meaning: A dosser is a person who lives in a lazy or idle manner, often homeless and relying on others for support.

1. The old man was often seen sleeping on the park bench, earning him the label of a dosser among the locals.
2. Despite his intelligence, he refused to get a job and chose to live as a dosser instead.
3. She was tired of her brother's antics, often calling him a dosser for his lack of ambition.
4. The documentary highlighted the struggles of a dosser trying to find shelter during the harsh winter months.
5. Many people misunderstand the term dosser, thinking it only refers to the homeless, when it can describe anyone who avoids responsibility.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dosser>