

DOTARD

Meaning: A dotard is an elderly person who is weak-minded or senile, often exhibiting confusion or forgetfulness.

1. The old man's rambling thoughts revealed him to be a dotard, lost in memories of a past long gone.
2. Her father, once sharp and witty, had become a dotard, repeating the same stories over and over.
3. In Shakespeare's plays, the dotard often serves as a comic figure, highlighting the folly of age.
4. As he struggled to remember simple names, his family began to worry that he was becoming a dotard.
5. The wise elder cautioned the youth against dismissing the dotard, for he still held valuable life lessons.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dotard>