

DOTE

Meaning: To dote means to show excessive fondness or love for someone, often through attention and gifts.

1. She dotes on her grandchildren, always showering them with gifts and affection.
2. Despite his tough exterior, he dotes on his dog, taking her for long walks every evening.
3. The elderly woman dotes on her garden, spending hours tending to each flower and plant.
4. Parents often dote on their firstborn, capturing every milestone with photographs and videos.
5. He dotes on his partner, surprising her with little notes of love hidden around the house.
6. She dotes on her grandchildren, always showering them with love and attention.
7. His mother would often dote over him, ensuring he had everything he needed.
8. The couple dotes on their pet cat, treating it like a member of the family.
9. It's clear that he dotes on his partner, always planning thoughtful surprises.
10. Grandparents tend to dote on their grandchildren, often spoiling them with gifts.
11. She tends to dote on her grandchildren, showering them with gifts and affection.
12. After winning the competition, his parents dote on him even more than before.
13. It's heartwarming to see how she dotes on her rescued dog, giving it the best life possible.
14. They dote on their only child, ensuring he has every opportunity to succeed.
15. Friends often tease him for how he dotes on his girlfriend, always planning surprises for her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dote>