

DOTED

Meaning: DOTED: to show excessive fondness or affection for someone, often through attentive care and support.

1. She always doted on her grandchildren, showering them with love and attention.
2. The teacher doted on her most promising student, encouraging him at every turn.
3. He doted over his new puppy, buying it every toy available at the pet store.
4. Growing up, she felt that her parents doted on her brother more than on her.
5. Even as adults, they still doted on each other, keeping their love alive with little gestures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doted>