

DOTERY

Meaning: Dotery refers to the state of being senile or exhibiting foolishness, often characterized by repetitive behavior and confusion, typically associated with old age.

1. The old man's dotery was evident in his repetitive stories and confused expressions.
2. As she listened to her grandfather's dotery, she couldn't help but smile at his endearing quirks.
3. His dotery often led to amusing misunderstandings during family gatherings.
4. Despite his dotery, he remained sharp in his love for art and poetry.
5. The community rallied around her when they noticed her father's dotery beginning to affect his daily life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dotery>