

DOTH

Meaning: 'Doth' is an archaic third-person singular form of the verb 'do,' used to indicate an action or state in a poetic or formal context.

1. In the hush of the evening, the moon doth rise with a silver glow.
2. He who doth not venture forth shall never find his fortune.
3. Love doth conquer all, or so the poets claim.
4. When the winds doth whisper through the trees, secrets are revealed.
5. In the face of adversity, courage doth shine brightest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doth>