

DOUBLE-QUICK

Meaning: Double-quick: adverb meaning very quickly or in a rapid manner.

1. She completed her homework double-quick so she could join her friends at the park.
2. The chef prepared the meal double-quick, impressing the guests with his speed and efficiency.
3. He made a double-quick decision to change his plans and attend the concert instead.
4. The team worked double-quick to meet the deadline for the project submission.
5. With the storm approaching, they packed up their equipment double-quick and headed for safety.
6. We need to finish this project double-quick if we want to meet the deadline.
7. The chef prepared the meal double-quick, impressing the guests with his speed.
8. He managed to solve the complex math problem double-quick, leaving his classmates in awe.
9. In emergencies, the team responds double-quick to ensure everyone's safety.
10. She packed her bags double-quick, eager to catch the next flight.
11. The runner finished the marathon double-quick, surprising everyone with her speed.
12. She managed to solve the puzzle double-quick, impressing her friends with her cleverness.
13. After receiving the urgent call, he got ready double-quick to meet the deadline.
14. The team worked double-quick to finalize the project before the presentation.
15. With the storm approaching, they packed the car double-quick and hit the road.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/double-quick>