

DOUBLEMINDED

Meaning: Double-minded: characterized by indecision or wavering between conflicting thoughts or beliefs, often leading to difficulty in making choices.

1. A double-minded person often struggles to make decisive choices in their life.
2. In relationships, being double-minded can lead to misunderstandings and hurt feelings.
3. The team's double-minded approach to the project caused significant delays in its completion.
4. He felt increasingly double-minded about his career path, torn between two very different opportunities.
5. To succeed, one must avoid being double-minded and commit fully to their goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doubleminded>