DOUBLER

Meaning: A doubler is a device or function that increases a signal or value by a factor of two.

1. The engineer designed a new doubler to enhance the signal strength in the communication system.

2. In mathematics, a doubler can refer to a function that effectively doubles the input value.

3. She used a voltage doubler circuit to efficiently power her electronic devices.

4. The magician amazed the audience by performing a trick that seemed to double the number of cards in his hand.

5. For the experiment, the team needed a sound doubler to accurately replicate the audio frequencies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doubler