

DOUBTFULNESS

Meaning: Doubtfulness refers to a state of uncertainty or lack of conviction regarding a situation or outcome.

1. Her doubtfulness about the project led to unnecessary delays in its implementation.
2. Despite the evidence presented, there remained a sense of doubtfulness among the committee members.
3. He spoke with a tone of doubtfulness that suggested he wasn't entirely convinced by her argument.
4. The politician's promises were met with widespread doubtfulness from the public.
5. In moments of uncertainty, her doubtfulness often overshadowed her usual confidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doubtfulness>