

DOUCINE

Meaning: Doucine is a decorative molding, typically convex in shape, used to enhance the aesthetic appeal of architectural features, especially at the edges of ceilings.

1. The doucine, a decorative molding, adds elegance to the ceiling's edge.
2. Architects often choose a doucine design to enhance the aesthetic appeal of classical buildings.
3. In the restoration of the old theater, the artisans carefully replicated the intricate doucine details.
4. The doucine's curved profile creates a gentle transition between the wall and the ceiling.
5. During the renovation, they discovered that the original doucine was made from rare hardwood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doucine>