

DOUGH-FACED

Meaning: Dough-faced: having a blank, expressionless, or passive demeanor, often indicating lack of interest or engagement.

1. He walked into the room with a dough-faced expression, showing no signs of enthusiasm.
2. The dough-faced man sat quietly at the café, lost in thought and oblivious to the world around him.
3. After hours of working on the project, she had a dough-faced look that indicated her exhaustion.
4. His dough-faced demeanor made it clear that he had little interest in the conversation.
5. Despite her dough-faced appearance, she had a sharp wit that caught everyone off guard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dough-faced>