

DOUGHFACE

Meaning: Doughface: A term used to describe a person, particularly a politician, who is perceived as lacking strong principles or convictions, often easily swayed by others.

1. The politician was labeled a doughface for his lack of conviction on critical issues.
2. In the heated debate, his opponents quickly characterized him as a doughface, lacking any real principles.
3. Many believed that his doughface demeanor made him an easy target for criticism.
4. She found it frustrating to deal with a doughface who couldn't take a stand on anything important.
5. His doughface expression during the negotiations suggested he was not fully engaged in the process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doughface>