

DOUSE

Meaning: To douse means to extinguish or put out (a fire) by pouring liquid over it.

1. She tried to douse the flames with a bucket of water.
2. The heavy rain helped to douse the smoldering ashes of the fire.
3. He decided to douse his worries and enjoy the moment.
4. The firefighters worked tirelessly to douse the blaze before it spread.
5. To celebrate, they doused each other with champagne after the victory.
6. The firefighter worked tirelessly to douse the flames engulfing the building.
7. She decided to douse the campfire with water before turning in for the night.
8. A sudden downpour helped to douse the smoldering remains of the forest fire.
9. He used a wet towel to douse the small grease fire in the kitchen.
10. After hours of dancing, they needed to douse their thirst with some refreshing lemonade.
11. He decided to douse the flames with a bucket of water.
12. To extinguish the campfire, we needed to douse it thoroughly with sand.
13. The sudden rain helped to douse the smoldering embers of the fire.
14. She tried to douse her excitement, but the news was simply too thrilling.
15. As the storm approached, he quickly doused the candles to prevent any fire hazards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/douse>