

DOUT

Meaning: DOUT (verb): To feel uncertain about or lack confidence in the truth, validity, or reliability of something.

1. I began to doubt the accuracy of the information presented in the report.
2. Her relentless questioning only served to deepen my doubt about his intentions.
3. Despite the evidence, I couldn't shake the feeling of doubt that lingered in my mind.
4. In moments of uncertainty, it's natural to experience doubt about the choices we make.
5. He faced his doubts head-on, determined to find clarity amidst the confusion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dout>