

DOUTER

Meaning: A douter is a person who is hesitant, uncertain, or skeptical, especially in response to new or unexpected information.

1. The douter stood in the corner, unsure of how to respond to the unexpected news.
2. Everyone admired her confidence, but deep down, she was a notorious douter.
3. In every group project, there was always one douter who questioned every decision made.
4. His reputation as a douter made it difficult for him to convince others of his ideas.
5. Despite being a douter, she took a leap of faith and pursued her dreams.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/douter>