

DOWEL

Meaning: A dowel is a cylindrical rod, typically made of wood or metal, used to reinforce joints or align components in construction and woodworking.

1. The carpenter used a dowel to join the two pieces of wood securely.
2. After drilling the holes, she inserted the dowels to ensure a perfect alignment.
3. He prefers dowel joints over screws for a cleaner finish in his furniture designs.
4. To strengthen the table legs, they added dowels at each corner of the frame.
5. She demonstrated how to properly measure and cut the dowels for the project.
6. The carpenter used a wooden dowel to join the two pieces of furniture together.
7. To ensure a strong connection, he carefully aligned the dowel holes before drilling.
8. After assembling the shelf, she inserted a dowel to provide additional stability.
9. The children learned how to create simple toys using dowels and colorful beads.
10. He replaced the broken leg of the table with a sturdy dowel for a quick fix.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dowel>