

DOWERED

Meaning: Dowered refers to being endowed or provided with a particular quality or property, especially in the context of receiving gifts or benefits, such as beauty or financial assets.

1. She was dowered with beauty and grace, captivating everyone who crossed her path.
2. The estate was dowered to her upon her marriage, ensuring her financial security.
3. In the old tradition, the bride was dowered with gifts from both families, symbolizing their union.
4. Despite her humble beginnings, she was dowered with a remarkable talent for music.
5. The inheritance was dowered to the eldest daughter, providing her with a significant advantage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dowered>