

DOWNFALLING

Meaning: Downfalling (noun): the process or state of decline or failure, often resulting in a significant loss of power, status, or success.

1. The company's downfalling was attributed to a series of poor management decisions.
2. The downfalling of the once-prominent empire serves as a cautionary tale for future leaders.
3. Her downfalling in the competition surprised everyone, given her strong performance in previous rounds.
4. As the economy began downfalling, many families struggled to make ends meet.
5. The artist's downfalling career was marked by a series of controversial choices that alienated fans.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/downfalling>