

DOWNHEARTED

Meaning: Downhearted: feeling sad, dejected, or discouraged, especially due to disappointment or setbacks.

1. After receiving the rejection letter, she felt utterly downhearted about her prospects.
2. He tried to put on a brave face, but deep down, he was feeling quite downhearted.
3. The team's loss in the championship left the fans downhearted and disappointed.
4. Despite her friends' efforts to cheer her up, she remained downhearted after the breakup.
5. The gloomy weather only added to his downhearted mood as he walked home alone.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/downhearted>