

DOWNHILL

Meaning: DOWNHILL: (adjective) referring to a slope or descent that moves from a higher elevation to a lower one, often associated with challenges or hazards in the context of travel or activity.

1. The mountain trail was steep and treacherous, making the descent feel like a real downhill challenge.
2. After the heavy rain, the dirt road became slippery and dangerous for any downhill riders.
3. As the sun began to set, we decided to take the downhill route home to catch the last light.
4. The athlete sprinted downhill, his heart racing with the thrill of speed and adrenaline.
5. They enjoyed a leisurely hike uphill, but the real fun began when they raced downhill on their bikes.
6. The cyclist sped downhill, feeling the rush of the wind against his face.
7. After the snowstorm, we decided to take the sled downhill for some winter fun.
8. As the sun set, the temperature dropped quickly, making the hike downhill more challenging.
9. The team faced a downhill race, but they were determined to give it their all.
10. He felt a sense of freedom as he ran downhill, the terrain inviting him to let loose.
11. The bike ride became exhilarating as we sped downhill, racing with the wind.
12. After weeks of rain, the once gentle slope had turned treacherous and muddy downhill.
13. She felt a rush of adrenaline as she glided downhill on her skateboard.
14. The team's performance has been steadily downhill since the star player was injured.
15. As the sun set, we hiked downhill, eager to reach our campsite before dark.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/downhill>