

DOZINESS

Meaning: Doziness is a state of drowsiness or mild lethargy, often characterized by a lack of alertness and difficulty concentrating.

1. After a long day at work, I was overcome by a sudden wave of doziness.
2. The medication left her in a state of doziness, making it hard to concentrate.
3. He struggled to fight off the doziness that crept in during the afternoon meeting.
4. The warm sun and gentle breeze contributed to a feeling of doziness as we lounged in the park.
5. She attributed her doziness to the lack of sleep the night before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doziness>