

DRABBER

Meaning: Drabber: lacking brightness or interest; dull or muted in color or appearance.

1. The room was painted in drabber shades that made it feel less inviting.
2. Her wardrobe became drabber over the years, filled mostly with dull colors.
3. As the weather turned colder, the landscape appeared drabber and more lifeless.
4. He noticed that the artwork looked drabber under the harsh fluorescent lights.
5. The once vibrant festival seemed drabber this year due to the rain and clouds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drabber>