

DRAIN

Meaning: DRAIN (verb): to cause a liquid to flow away from something or to deplete one's energy or vitality.

1. The heavy rainfall caused the river to overflow and drain into the nearby fields.
2. After the long hike, I felt completely drained and needed to rest.
3. It's important to drain the pasta well before adding it to the sauce.
4. The old pipes were clogged, leading to a slow drain in the bathroom sink.
5. She tried to drain her worries by focusing on her breathing and meditation.
6. The heavy rain caused the stormwater drain to overflow onto the streets.
7. After washing the dishes, she needed to drain the sink to avoid a mess.
8. The team worked tirelessly to drain the swamp and make the land usable for farming.
9. He felt emotionally drained after the long week of stressful meetings.
10. To improve the flavor, let the pasta drain for a few minutes before serving.
11. The rainwater was quickly drained away from the flooded street.
12. She decided to drain the pasta before adding it to the sauce.
13. His energy seemed to drain away after a long day at work.
14. The technician was called to fix the drain that had become clogged.
15. They watched the sunset as it slowly drained the sky of its vibrant colors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drain>