

DRAPE

Meaning: Drape: to loosely arrange or hang a fabric or material in a decorative manner.

1. She decided to drape the elegant fabric over the chair to enhance the room's decor.
2. The artist chose to drape the canvas in vibrant colors, creating a sense of movement.
3. As the sun set, shadows began to drape softly across the landscape.
4. For the gala, she wore a stunning gown that seemed to drape effortlessly around her figure.
5. They used a sheer curtain to drape across the window, allowing soft light to filter in.
6. She decided to drape the colorful fabric over the chair to brighten up the room.
7. The artist used a sheer drape to add layers and depth to her latest painting.
8. As the sun set, a warm light began to drape over the landscape, creating a picturesque scene.
9. He chose to drape the heavy curtains to block out the early morning light.
10. For the party, they planned to drape twinkling lights along the walls for a festive atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drape>