

DRAPER

Meaning: A draper is a person who sells cloth and fabrics, often specializing in textiles for clothing and home furnishings.

1. The draper carefully selected the finest fabrics for his new collection.
2. After much deliberation, she decided to consult the local draper about her dress design.
3. In the quaint village, the draper's shop was a treasure trove of vibrant textiles.
4. He apprenticed under an experienced draper, learning the art of tailoring and design.
5. The draper displayed an impressive assortment of curtains and upholstery in his storefront.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/draper>