

DRAPERIED

Meaning: Draperied: adorned or covered with drapery or fabric, often in an elegant or elaborate manner.

1. The bride entered the hall, draperied in lace and silk, captivating everyone present.
2. The old mansion was draperied in heavy velvet curtains that fluttered slightly in the draft.
3. As the artist painted, she draperied the model in vibrant fabrics to capture the play of light and shadow.
4. The stage was transformed into a magical scene, draperied with shimmering fabrics that flowed like water.
5. He admired how the designer draperied the gown, creating an elegant silhouette that flattered every curve.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/draperied>