DRAWBACK

Meaning: A drawback is a disadvantage or negative aspect of something that may limit its effectiveness or appeal.

1. One significant drawback of the proposal is its lack of financial feasibility.
2. While the new software offers many benefits, its complexity is a major drawback for users.
3. The main drawback of living in a small town is the limited access to cultural activities.
4. Despite its popularity, the product has a serious drawback: it tends to break easily.
5. The drawback of his approach is that it may not be suitable for all situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drawback