

DRAWLING

Meaning: DRAWLING: speaking in a slow, lazy manner with elongated vowel sounds, often conveying a relaxed or leisurely tone.

1. She spoke in a drawling accent that made her words sound leisurely and relaxed.
2. The old man had a drawling way of telling stories that captivated the children around him.
3. As he walked through the park, his drawling voice echoed softly, mingling with the sounds of nature.
4. Her drawling laughter filled the room, instantly putting everyone at ease.
5. In the south, a drawling speech often reflects the warmth and hospitality of the people.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drawling>