

DREADABLE

Meaning: DREADABLE (adjective): Causing a feeling of fear, apprehension, or dread; evoking a sense of unease or discomfort.

1. The atmosphere of the abandoned house was so dreadful that I felt a chill run down my spine.
2. Her dreadful habit of procrastination always led to last-minute stress and chaos.
3. The news of the impending storm filled the townspeople with a dreadful sense of foreboding.
4. He faced the dreadful task of sorting through years of accumulated paperwork.
5. Every time she thought about the exam results, a dreadful anxiety washed over her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dreadable>