

DREADFULNESS

Meaning: DREADFULNESS: the quality or state of being extremely bad, alarming, or distressing.

1. The dreadfulness of the situation left everyone speechless.
2. She could hardly contain her feelings of dreadfulness as the news unfolded.
3. The dreadfulness of their actions haunted them long after the event.
4. In the face of such dreadfulness, they found strength in each other.
5. He wrote a poem reflecting on the dreadfulness of war and its impact on humanity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dreadfulness>