

DREAR

Meaning: DREAR: adjective describing a bleak, gloomy, or dismal atmosphere or demeanor.

1. The drear landscape stretched endlessly, shrouded in mist and shadow.
2. Her drear expression revealed the weight of her unspoken worries.
3. As the rain poured down, the day took on a drear quality that matched his mood.
4. The book was filled with drear tales of lost loves and forgotten dreams.
5. He found it challenging to stay motivated in such a drear office environment.
6. The drear atmosphere of the abandoned house sent shivers down my spine.
7. As the rain poured relentlessly, the drear landscape looked even more desolate.
8. Her voice had a drear quality that made the news even harder to bear.
9. The poet captured the drear moments of life with remarkable depth and sensitivity.
10. He found solace in the drear weather, using it as inspiration for his writing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drear>