

DRENCH

Meaning: Drench (verb): to soak thoroughly with liquid.

1. The sudden downpour drenched the streets, creating small rivers of water.
2. After playing in the rain, the children were completely drenched and laughing joyfully.
3. She accidentally drenched her new dress while trying to fill the watering can.
4. The fireman used a hose to drench the flames, ultimately saving the building.
5. He felt a sense of relief as the cool water drenched his tired body on a hot summer day.
6. The sudden downpour will drench everything in the garden before we have a chance to cover it.
7. She forgot her umbrella and got completely drenched on her way to work.
8. The firefighters worked tirelessly to drench the flames consuming the old warehouse.
9. After the storm passed, the streets were drenched with rainwater, creating small rivers.
10. He decided to drench his new shirt in the pool to cool off from the summer heat.
11. The sudden downpour drenched everyone waiting at the bus stop.
12. She accidentally drenched her friend with a garden hose while watering the plants.
13. After the intense workout, he was drenched in sweat and needed a shower.
14. The storm soaked the fields, drenching the crops in much-needed water.
15. They laughed as the waves drenched them during their beach outing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drench>