

DRENT

Meaning: 'DRENT' refers to the gradual slope or incline of a landscape, particularly in relation to the banks of a river or the horizon.

1. The drent of the river created a beautiful landscape that attracted photographers.
2. As the sun set, the drent of the horizon was painted in shades of orange and pink.
3. The drent in her voice revealed her excitement about the upcoming adventure.
4. He spoke with a drent that was both soothing and authoritative, capturing everyone's attention.
5. The artist captured the drent of the city in his latest painting, showcasing its vibrant life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drent>