

DRESSMAKING

Meaning: Dressmaking is the art and craft of designing and sewing garments from fabric, involving creativity and technical skills.

1. Dressmaking requires both creativity and technical skill to transform fabric into beautiful garments.
2. She embarked on a dressmaking course to refine her sewing techniques and learn about pattern drafting.
3. The art of dressmaking has been passed down through generations, preserving traditional styles and methods.
4. With a keen eye for detail, her dressmaking talents quickly garnered attention at local fashion shows.
5. Many people find dressmaking to be a therapeutic hobby that allows for self-expression and personalization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dressmaking>