

DREST

Meaning: 'Drest' is the past tense of 'dress,' meaning to adorn or outfit oneself or something with clothing or decoration.

1. She drest herself in a flowing gown that shimmered under the candlelight.
2. The artist had drest his canvas with vibrant colors that captured the essence of the sunset.
3. In the fairy tale, the princess was drest in jewels that sparkled like stars.
4. He was drest for the occasion, wearing a tailored suit that fit him perfectly.
5. The celebration began as she entered the room, drest in elegance and grace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drest>