

DREUL

Meaning: 'Dreul' refers to a mournful or haunting sound, often associated with nature or distant echoes.

1. The dreul of the storm echoed through the empty streets, a haunting melody of nature's fury.
2. As the sun set, the dreul of the distant train reminded her of home and the journeys yet to come.
3. In the quiet library, the only sound was the dreul of pages turning as students immersed themselves in their studies.
4. His voice had a dreul quality to it, drawing everyone in with its captivating rhythm and tone.
5. While the crowd cheered, a dreul trumpet solo filled the air, adding a touch of melancholy to the celebration.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dreul>