DRILLING

Meaning: Drilling refers to the process of creating a hole in the ground or a solid surface, typically to extract resources such as water or oil.

1. The team focused on drilling the new well to access underground water supplies.
2. Drilling for oil in the Arctic poses significant environmental challenges.
3. She spent the afternoon drilling holes in the wooden planks for the new fence.
4. The geologist explained the importance of precision when drilling core samples.
5. Safety measures are crucial when drilling in deep-sea environments to prevent accidents.
6. The drilling of the new well is expected to begin next week.
7. She spent the afternoon drilling holes in the wooden boards for her project.
8. Drilling for oil in the Arctic poses significant environmental risks.
9. The team practiced their skills through rigorous drilling exercises.
10. He was known for his precision when it came to drilling complex materials.
11. Drilling for oil in the Arctic has raised environmental concerns among activists.
12. The construction crew is drilling deep into the ground to lay the foundation for the new skyscraper.
13. Her experience in drilling geological samples made her an invaluable asset to the research team.
14. The sound of drilling echoed through the neighborhood as the workers repaired the old water pipes.
15. Drilling techniques have advanced significantly, allowing for safer and more efficient extraction of natural resources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/drilling